

Creating Caring Communities:

Responding to Bullying & Exclusion

With guest speaker Professor Mara Sapon - Shevin

Creating classroom communities in which children treat one another well can't just mean eliminating negative interpersonal behavior. It must mean using active teaching strategies to help students develop repertoires of inclusion, good communication and collaboration. Through songs, games, children's literature and interactive activities, we will experience ways to build community and explore how we can implement similar strategies in our classroom and schools.

Please choose and register per the link provided:

9-11 am session:

Creatingcaringcommunities1.eventbrite.com

1-3 pm session:

Creatingcaringcommunities2.eventbrite.com

Registration is limited to only 75 people per session. Participants can sign-in 30 minutes prior to each session.

Howell Instructional Building
3955 W. Pensacola Street
Tallahassee, FL 32304

Directions: Traveling west on Pensacola Street, you will cross Appleyard Drive and Progress Drive. The building will be located on your left past the Pepsi Refreshment Building.

FREE WORKSHOP

Contact
Beth Williams
at: williamse@leonschools.net or 850-487-2630
or Sallie Payne
at slpayne@fsu.edu

Saturday,
February 25,
2012

